TRANSPORT LOGAN-WILL GO TO CABLE STATION IN SIX WEEKS.

There arrived on the S. S. Manchuria yesterday from San Francisco Dr. R. A. Campbell, a passed assistant surgeon in the Navy. He is bound for Midway to take the place made vacant by the recent death of Dr. Miller,

At the naval station the news has been received that a new guard of marines for Midway had left San Francisco on the transport Logan some days ago. Twenty-five marines under command of Second Lieutenant M. E. Shearer compose the party. Five of the marines will be left at the local station and the remainder with Shearer will go to Midway either by the Lawton or Saturn. The party will remain in Honolulu about six weeks. They will relieve the marine guard that has been on duty at Midway for some months. Shearer was formerly on duty at the
